A Word to Republicans.

The hope of the party lies in the expansion of a substantial Republican press. The Republics who read or otherwise help to support a Democratic paper to the exclusion of one of his own party newspapers is untrue to the Republican cause.

The Prohibition bill introduced in the Legislature of South Carolina, to the adoption of which, it is said, a majority of the members are pledged.

Prohibition makes the sale or South Carolina. giving away of intoxicating liquors punishable by fine and imprisonment for the first offense, and makes any subsequent offense a felony, punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary.

The sale of liquor for medicinal, mechanical, scientific and sacramental purposes is intrusted to State Commissioners, to be appointed by the Governor and known to the Governor as a total abstinence. How the Governor is to obtain the requisite personal knowledge of the Commissioner's habits is not explained.

It is likely that either the bill introduced or a measure closely approaching it will be passed, and that the struggle between the "Wets" and the "Drys" which has so long agitated Georgia will be extended to the neighboring state. If the bill also contained a provision for the effective suppression of "moonshine" whisky the National revenue might be materially benefited.

Let's see. We believe Attorney General HENDRICK gave Auditor NORMAN a written official "opinion" as to the latter's duty in the World's Fair bill muddle. Mr. Henderson has also given his or two "verbal" opinions as to how the people of Maysville ought to vote at the coming January election. As the Court of Appeals has knocked his written opinion sky high, will somebody please tell us what his verbal opinion is worth?

The recently-enacted Revenue and Taxation bill—it may not be a law, concludes with these words: "the depleted condition of the State Treasury requires that all property should be taxed; therefore, this act shall become a law upon the approval by the Governor." And then comes the signature of the Speaker of the House and President of the Senate, followed by this note: "Rescued a New November 11th, 1893, the Governor not having signed or returned the same," etc. This may be good law as lawyers look at it; but to common-sense every-day plain people it looks somewhat contradictory. The Chamberlain and state were the outgrowth of too much law made by lawyers in the latest of lawyers.

A TORNADO.

Houses Demolished and People Killed and Injured.

The Known Fatalities Near Summit, Miss., Are Four.

Several Were Injured, Some of Whom Will Die—Household Effects Scattered for Miles Around, and Large Pine Trees Uprooted and Broken.

SUMMIT, Miss., Dec. 14.—A tornado passed two miles above this town at 9:30 Tuesday morning. The house of Rev. S. R. Young, a Baptist minister, was completely demolished, and the occupants were buried in the ruins. Relief parties were organized at once and a search made for the victims. Mr. Young and his family were rescued from the ruins of their residence, all dangerously wounded.

The following is a list of the killed and wounded as far as known:

Killed—A six-year-old daughter of S. A. Lowe.

W. M. Freeman, a colored man. A colored woman, name unknown, and colored baby, not identified.

Wounded—S. R. Young, left arm broken and internally injured. Mrs. S. R. Young, serious internal injuries.

Daughter of S. R. Young, both legs broken. Son of S. R. Young and Mrs. S. A. Lowe, serious internal injuries.

Negro woman and child, seriously injured.

The tornado cut a path three hundred yards wide, carrying everything in its way.

Large pine trees were uprooted and snapped in pieces. The residence of S. A. Lowe was completely destroyed, and household effects were scattered for miles.

A SCHOOL BOY'S STORY

Causes the Arrest and Indictment of a Teacher in a Parochial School.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Dec. 14.—An unusual occurrence in Judge Stowe's branch of the criminal court Tuesday was the issuance of a process for the arrest of a Sister of Charity. The defendant is Sister M. Jallene, a teacher in the parochial school at West Tarentum, and is charged with assault and battery on Peter Dohman, the six-year-old son of Edward Dohman, who made the information. It is alleged that on November 23 the teacher assaulted the child at the school by pushing him down stairs, striking him on the head and injuring him so severely that he had to be carried home. She gave $800 bail for trial at court, and the grand jury found a true bill against her. Tuesday case was called for trial, but the defendant did not appear. As is usual in such cases a process was issued for her arrest, and she will be brought in by a deputy sheriff.

Bank Burglar Mangled.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Dec. 14.—A burglar who attempted to rob the banking house of Harkness, Wyman & Russell, at No. 13 West Ninth street, was over taken by sudden death. The robber had gained an entrance to the bank, but was evidently frightened away before he got much plunder. Before making his escape, however, he donned an overcoat which had been left in the office of the bank. Tuesday morning the body of a man, clad in the missing coat, was found in the Cypress railroad yards frightfully mangled. The man had been run over by a passing train and cut to pieces. He is unknown to the police, and there was nothing on the body by which to identify him.

His Next Fatal Error.

WILLIAMSON, W. Va., Dec. 14.—Believing that he had been robbed by Tom Brown, Ephraim, of this place, Tuesday publicly branded him as a thief. The man returned, however, and was taken into custody. Brown drew his revolver and shot the supposed thief to death. On returning to his home he was horrified to find that he had been robbed. He discovered the money in an out of the way place where he had hidden it. Upon making this discovery he surrendered himself to the authorities, and is now in jail on the charge of murder. He is completely remorse-stricken.

Robert Beatty Refused a Habeas.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Dec. 14.—In the law and equity court, Tuesday morning Judge Toney refused to issue the habeas corpus writ applied for by Robert Beatty, the alleged Homestead conspirator. The ground of the application was an irregularity in the issue of the warrant against Beatty. The prisoner's examining trial will come off in the police court Wednesday morning.

A National Bank Fails.

RAPID CITY, S. D., Dec. 14.—The Black Hills national bank of this city closed its doors Tuesday, being unable to pay a certificate of deposit for a large amount. The bank is now in the hands of the state bank examiner. The directors say that the depositors will get nothing, and that the institution will resume.

A Dull Day in Congress.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—Congress was not lively Tuesday. After a rather interesting morning hour in the senate, Mr. George, of Mississippi, spoke on the anti-optic bill. The house did not do much business of general interest. Both branches adjourned early.

The Requirement for Beatty Honored.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Dec. 14.—A deputy sheriff, Frank, of Allegheny, Pa., arrived in this city Tuesday afternoon with a requisition for Robert Beatty, the alleged Homestead prisoner now in jail in Louisville, and Gov. Brown issued the necessary warrants.

A Soldier Considers.

NEW YORK, Dec. 14.—Matthew Bird, a native of the West Indian islands, has been arrested and confined that he warranted Engineer Knechtel's Sunday.

FRENCH CRISIS.

Constitutional Dispute by Gaule—Another Political Upheaval Threatened.

PARIS, Dec. 14.—In consequence of M. Clemenceau's letter published in Figaro, concerning M. Rouvier, the financial minister, with the Panama scandal, the latter called upon President Carnot at the palace of the Elysee Tuesday, and handed in his resignation of the financial portfolio. Great excitement prevails. It is said that another ministerial crisis is impending, and that another political upheaval may be expected at any time.

M. Clemenceau, editor of La Justice, distinctly denies in Tuesday's issue that M. Rouvier used the columns of La Justice to puff his new enterprises. He admits that Baron Reinach and M. Rouvier successfully visited him on the night before Reinach's death, but he was out and did not see them. M. Rouvier had complained to him in the lobby of the chamber that Baron Reinach was being driven mad by the campaign organized by the papers against him; that it was for him a question of life and death, and he had wished that M. Rouvier would accompany him to see M. Herz, and to induce him to see his influence to stop the attacks.

Accordingly M. Rouvier, with the baron and accompanied by M. Clemenceau, visited M. Herz. M. Herz declared that he could not render the service required.

The Gaule Tuesday published what purports to be a selection of the last hours of Baron de Reinach, the banker who died in November under circumstances that led to the general belief that he had committed suicide because of his connection with the Panama canal scandal. The Gaule claims to have knowledge of the manner in which Baron de Reinach spent the hours preceding his death, and the story in the paper confirms in many particulars what has already been stated and credited to rumor.

The paper says that after the final interview between Baron de Reinach, M. Rouvier and M. Herz the baron found that all hope of escaping the consequences of his connection with the Panama affair was gone. He returned to his home at midnight. Arriving there he wrote several letters and destroyed a number of documents.

After doing these preparations he swallowed a quantity of poison. The paper tells its story with great particularity of detail, even saying that the poison was taken at exactly 1 o'clock in the morning. It is the general opinion that Baron de Reinach was, with Arton, one of the "useful" men of the Panama scheme.

HOUSE SWEEP AWAY

By a Sudden Rise in a Tennessee Creek—The Immediate Escape.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Dec. 14.—There was a rapid rise in the waters of the stream that empties into the Mississippi at Memphis. After midnight a big raft of logs moored in the stream broke loose from its fastenings and swept down on a little houseboat occupied by a dealer in wine and spirits, and hot tomatoes, named Charles Willard. The houseboat was shattered and Willard was thrown into the water under the rushing raft and drowned. A boy 15 years old, named George Shadon, who was also in the houseboat, held on to a fragment of the wreck, which was being rapidly pushed by the raft toward the head of the Mississippi. He finally caught sight of a skiff that had been moored alongside the houseboat, jumped into it and by skillful use of the oars saved himself.

Archbishop Prelate on the Miracle.

ST. PAUL MINN., December 14.—Archbishop Ireland has refused to take any notice of the "miracle" He says: "I have no order to make concerning the Canton church. It is a matter wholly within the jurisdiction of the bishop of Wisconsin and I have nothing to do with it. The general tone of the report from the church leads me to put no confidence in the miraculous or supernatural manifestations said to have appeared there. Mind—I don't say that these things are not possible. This is quite another matter. I have no objection to calls for independent examination and judgment."

Hitchcock Mail Drivers Dosed.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 14.—In the United States district court the cases of four mail wagon drivers convicted of stealing packages that they were conveying to the city, and who had been disposed of as follows: Charles Koch, $200 fine and two years; John Hooper, $200 fine and two years; Richard Dixon, $200 fine and two years; and James Hirst, who turned state's evidence, $100 fine and nine months.

Damages for Breach of Promise.

KNOXWORTH, W. Va., Dec. 13.—The breach of promise case of Eliza Dumes against Lloyd Hansford in the Tucker county court has at last been tried. The case lasted two days, and after an hour's retirement of the jury brought in a verdict of $2,250 damages for plaintiff. Mr. Hansford is a well-known lawyer, and a citizen of Tucker county. He was elected to the legislature at the recent election. The case will be appealed.

Ormonde's Future.

BUEKOS AYRES, Dec. 14.—The famous stallion, Ormonde, has been delivered to his new owner, William McDonough. He will be taken to England, where he is to serve several mares, leaving here on December 30. He will then be taken to the home of his owner in the United States.

The Alabama Legislature.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Dec. 14.—The Alabama assembly has adjourned for the holiday season. It resumes January 9. There has been much important legislation proposed, but nothing has been passed so far.

A Doctor Warned.

BALTIMORE, Dec. 14.—Alexander Brown's warehouses at Bond and Thames streets, and 10,000 boxes of cotton stored in them, were destroyed by fire Tuesday morning, entailing a loss of $500,000.

The Emerson Piano.

These instruments have enjoyed a high reputation for more than forty years. Are brilliant and musical in tone, and afford a most beautiful accompaniment to vocal music—the tone having the rare sympathetic quality which blends admirably with the human voice. They are durable, being constructed of the Best Materials, by the Most Skillful Workmen. They have earned an exceptional reputation for Keeping in Tune, and also for retaining in a most remarkable degree their original fullness of tone—never growing thin or very with age.

The Emerson Upright Piano especially have obtained a remarkable success during the past few years, and have invariably received a high award wherever exhibited. In all the essential qualities of a first-class instrument they are second to no piano manufactured in the country.

These 15 Volumes are each about 5 1/2 x 7 1/2 inches in size, and of uniform thickness. The printing is superb. They are printed from plates made for this edition. Not Condensed or Abridged.

GOOD PAPER! CLEAR PRINT! NEAT BINDING!

Dickens' Works are the most widely read of any novels printed in any language. The popularity of Dickens is ever increasing, and every reader should own a full set of his works. Charles Dickens is eminently the novelist of the people. His books come with shafts of sparkling wit, touches of pathos, flashes of humor, and a wealth of original and real as well as quaint and grotesque; he sketches life in all its forms. The lights and shadows of life are delineated in a thrilling and dramatic style. To own a complete set of his incomparable books is to be possessed of an inexhaustible mine of interesting literature. No person is well who has not perused them. Never before has the opportunity been presented for securing so much valuable reading matter for so small an amount. It is really a whole library of Standard Works at the price of the common trash. If you wish to get this set you should send in your order at once, that it may be among the first, and that you lose no time in enjoying the ownership of it.
